VillageCapital

Akara Research provides geo-visual analytics platforms for enterprises and governments to make informed decision-making using diverse sets of data.

Banyan Nation is a technology-driven waste management and plastics recycling company.

CrimeCheck works to promote transparency in India by simplifying access to public data.

EmpowerU develops intelligent solutions for real-time monitoring and evaluation of real world problems, with a current focus on government schools.

Faclon Labs provides an IoT-based hardware and software solution to better manage water infrastructure and operations.

Fluid Robotics builds advanced tools for mapping the health of urban pipeline infrastructure to help reduce water loss and water pollution.

GARV Toilets provides a rich user experience to low-income urban communities through tech-enabled smart sanitation centres.

Haqdarshak is a tech platform that enables citizens to discover, apply for, and benefit from eligible government and private welfare schemes.

Reap Benefit offers a platform to improve the public problem-solving ability of citizens.

ReCity helps governments and corporates to create and implement solutions in waste management, sanitation, and EPR through participatory urban planning.

Right2Vote provides a technology platform to election commissions, colleges, and other private organizations for managing elections online.

RoadBounce provides a smart road diagnostic system for road authorities globally.

ValetEZ is focused on solving congestion in cities through smart parking solutions based on mobile, cloud, and IoT.

Zippr provides digital addressing solutions to governments and private sector companies for effective communication and enhanced service delivery.

OMIDYAR NETWORK